

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS MANAGEMENT DEVELOPMENT CENTRE LAW SHORT COURSES

Management Development Centre (MDC) in conjunction with the Department of Economics and Law (DECL) both under the School of Business and Economic Science (SOBES) of the Malawi University of Business and Applied Sciences (MUBAS) wish to invite eligible persons to register for any of the following courses lasting for 3 months (part-time) as follows:

SN.	Course Title	Course Description
1	Industrial Relations Law	This course enables the participant to acquire knowledge of the law governing the employment relationships and the mechanisms for the resolution of disputes arising thereout.
2	Competition Law	The course equips the participant with the skills to make a legal and economic assessment of trade restricting practices in mergers and acquisitions or consumer sales. The course also considers the role and powers of the CFTC-Commission and international free trade agreements relevant for Malawi.
3	Financial Services Law	The course is intended to provide a broad overview of the principal laws which regulate financial services in Malawi. It includes a discussion of the role of the regulatory authorities in this area and of the ways in which the legislator tries to balance the need to give service providers enough flexibility in which to operate whilst providing enough protection to investors and adequate safeguards against abuse of the financial systems. The course further focuses on aspects of banking and other non-insurance financial services.
4	Public International Law	This course equips the participant with an understanding of the functioning and operation of the international legal system and how that interacts with and affects domestic legal systems. The course will further focus on economic international law and discuss how trade treaties affect the national interests of Malawi.
